JULY 2015

We are pleased to announce the following cast for Dad's Army –

Antony Butchart (Capt. Mainwaring) Barry Olding (Lance Corporal Jones) Alan Telford (Pte. Godfrey) Mitch Langley (Pte. Walker) Matt Taylor (Pte. Pike) Bill Carney (Pte. Fraser) Sam Bye (Chief Warden Hodges).

Other roles feature – Ruarri Stewart, Harvey Griggs, Jan Gluszyk, Frank Madill, Ann Campo, Amelia McDonnell, Greg Parkinson & Dennis Mann.

HOWEVER, the actor chosen to play Sgt. Wilson is now unavailable, and as a consequence we are having an audition for this role on Sat. 1st August at Holy Trinity, Cameron St. at 10.00 a.m.

It would be of assistance if Expressions of Interest could be registered with Linda on the Players' mobile 0408 599 900 or by email to secretary@launcestonplayers.com

Production rehearsals start in early Feb. 2016 and it commences in the Earl Arts Centre on 29 April 2016.

Theatre Drinks

The upstairs foyer of the Princess Theatre will again be the venue for Theatre Drinks and it is the Players' turn to host this on FRIDAY 17 JULY at 6.00p.m.

Do come along to this most appropriate new venue, and remember that your friends are very welcome also. Proceeds from the Bar go to the Friends of Theatre North, thus keeping profits within the Theatre community. Please check our website for the details of which door downstairs will be the entry point.

Costume Parade

The Friends of Theatre North at the Princess will present a parade of costumes from theatre productions - a fashion parade with the difference! Warp & Weft: Weaving Time - A Panorama of Costumes will be an action packed, extravaganza of costumes sourced from the wardrobe archives of many of Launceston's leading theatre companies. The museum has also agreed to lend some of its prize pieces for display.

EARL ARTS CENTRE – THURSDAY 23 JULY at 7pm. Tickets: Full $25 Friends $20 F/T Student $15

Supper is included. Bookings can be made at the Princess theatre booking office on 6323 3666 or at www.theatrenorth.com.au
