Adieu and Merci

To our friend, committee colleague and esteemed performer Chris Bryg who leaves Launceston to “follow his dreams” and embark on opera studies at the Conservatorium in Sydney.

Our warmest best wishes to Chris for the future and much gratitude for his valued contribution to the cultural life of our City.

Vale Noel

It is with much sadness that we record the death of a past Player's stalwart – Noel Dicker.

Noel was involved with the Players for many years as an occasional performer, but more frequently as a Director of numerous plays and musicals. Noel directed our much lauded productions “Oliver” in 1973, “My Fair Lady” in 1976 and “Gigi” in 1979. Our sincere sympathy is extended to his family.
