

FOLLOW SPOTS

APRIL 2017

New Committee

At our March AGM the following members were elected to the committee for 2017.

President: Grahame Foster

Vice Presidents: Liz Santamaria and Jeff Hockley

Secretary: Linda Madill

Treasurer: Mary Johnson

General Committee: Mark Horner, Alan Telford, David Towns, Vanessa Clifford, Morris Hateley-Barter, Brian Gunst.

We thank retiring committee member Ann Campo for her valued contribution during the past two years, and welcome our three new members.

Trivia Night

You are all invited to make up a table of friends and come along to our Trivia night to launch the May production of “One Flew Over the Cuckoo’s Nest”.

When: Saturday 6 May at 7.30p.m.

Where: Invermay Bowls Club, Forster Street.

Dress: 60’s mod, nurse or whatever. Go mad!

Cost $10 per person. Tables of 8 available.

Bookings – jeffhockley@bigpond.com or 0408500341

BYO food and snacks. Bar purchases for drinks.

One Flew Over the Cuckoo’s Nest

Our much anticipated production will be presented at the Earl Arts Centre from May 24 to May 28, 2017.

Matinees are on Sat. 27 May at 2.00 and Sunday at 3p.m.

Director Megan Jolly has assembled a stellar cast and this promises to be a very memorable production.

For BOOKINGS and full performance details go to www.launcestonplayers.com and for a direct link to TryBooking.

DOOR SALES will be available 1 hour prior to each performance. For General Enquiries and door sale reservations please ring 0413 629 500.

Theatre Drinks

The Launceston Musical Society will be the hosts for Theatre Drinks on 19 May and the Launceston Players will host the drinks on 16 June. They will be held in the upstairs foyer of the Princess Theatre.

Details of the times for these will be posted on the Launceston Players website www.launcestonplayers.com

Congratulations to

Lauren Neal and Fiontan Cassidy who were joint awardees of the 2016 Launceston Players Performing Arts Award at Newstead College.

The award was established in 2006. Terry Wedding was the first recipient.

Lauren and Fiontan with Launceston Players' President, Grahame Foster, at the Awards Night on February 1, 2017.

Coming Attractions

Allegrì Ensemble in Concert – Holy Trinity Church – 29 April at 3.30p.m – door sales.

Footloose – presented by St. Patrick's College from May 3 – 6 at the Princess Theatre

9 to 5 – The Musical – presented by the Launceston Musical Society from June 16 - 24. Earl Arts Centre

For further information and bookings phone the Princess Theatre Booking office on 6323 3666 or go to www.theatrenorth.com.au

Sponsors for 2017

The Launceston Players thank the following sponsors for their support for One Flew Over the Cuckoo's Nest.

The EXAMINER

HILROSS
LAUNCESTON

What's your idea of financial freedom?

- Aged care preparation
- Direct shares
- Insurance
- Investment strategies
- Retirement planning
- Superannuation

6332 7666 Trotter & Partners Pty Ltd

www.hillrosslaunceston.com.au contact@hillrosslaunceston.com.au

1st Floor, 65 St John St
Launceston Tasmania 7250

a: PO Box 814, Launceston TAS 7250
m: 0408 599 900
f: www.facebook.com/Launceston.Players

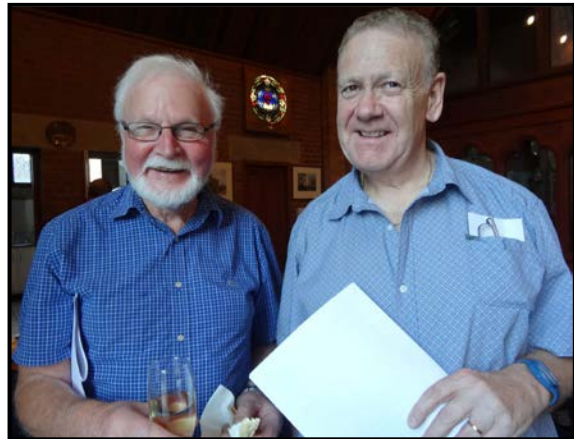

e: secretary@launcestonplayers.com

t: @LtnPLayers

w: www.launcestonplayers.com

Photo Gallery

Annual General Meeting – 15 March

One Flew Over the Cuckoo's Nest Rehearsals

Pre-rehearsal discussion.

Jan presenting Megan with a production cake made by his wife Fiona. It was enjoyed by a very appreciative cast during the rehearsal.