SEPTEMBER 2015

“An Afternoon of Memories”

A capacity audience thoroughly enjoyed a most interesting parade of clothing and costumes from our extensive wardrobe collection. Sincere thanks to Ann Campo for her untiring efforts to ensure the success of this event, and to Linda Madill for her invaluable assistance in all areas.

Our thanks also to Jeff Hockley and Marg Dick for providing a most entertaining commentary, Treasurer Mary Johnson (and husband Lou) for taking care of the ‘financials’, and also our lovely models and their efficient dressers.

A really beautiful musical interlude was provided by Denise Sam and Valerie Towers and we did appreciate them giving their time so willingly.

We also appreciate the hard work of all who provided the delicious afternoon tea, as well as John Campo and his friend John Doyle who looked after the bar so expertly, and the committee members who helped during the afternoon. Well done all!

“Dad’s Army”

We are pleased to advise the role of Sgt. Wilson which had to be recast due to the original actor being unavailable at production time, will now be played by Martin Bergeron, and the role of Mrs Fox by Dianne Summers. A full cast read through is planned for November, and rehearsals commence in early Feb.

Productions dates are 29 April to 7 May 2016 at the Earl Arts Centre, and we are thrilled that one night of this production has already been sold! Bookings will be open in October – tickets would be a great Christmas present!
